Global Opportunities for U.S Manufacturers in a Rapidly Changing World

Robert Sanger
Director of Training Services
California Manufacturing & Trade Association

Robert Sanger is the Director of Training Services at the California Manufacturers & Technology Association. In this role over the last ten years, his team has assisted hundreds of companies gain access to training funds from the State of California and the U.S. Department of Labor. He also is very knowledgeable about other incentive programs from the California Governor's Office of Economic Development and serves on the California Community College Vice Chancellor advisory board.

Rob holds a Bachelor of Science from the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy in Kings Point, NY.

CMTA's Mission:

The California Manufacturers & Technology Association works to improve and enhance a strong business climate for California's 30,000 manufacturing, processing and technology based companies. Since 1918, CMTA has worked with state government to develop balanced laws, effective regulations and sound public policies to stimulate economic growth and create new jobs while safeguarding the state's environmental resources. CMTA represents 400 businesses from the entire manufacturing community -- an economic sector that generates more than $230 billion every year and employs more than 1.2 million Californians.
