

International Trade Symposium at the World Ag Expo Wednesday, February 15, 2017 | Tulare, CA

Growing Sustainable Farms – Increase Profits, Mitigate Risk

Ski Allender
Risk Management Specialist
USDA – Risk Management Agency

Ski Allender works as a Risk Management Specialist with the USDA Risk Management Agency (RMA) at the Davis, California Regional Office. Ski has a broad range of responsibilities which include actuarial analysis and review for a wide variety of agricultural crops and related insurance programs. In addition he travels extensively throughout a five state area of responsibility in order to educate and speak to many diverse groups about the importance that the federal crop insurance program has in mitigating risk to agricultural producers and farmers.

Prior to his assignment at the Risk Management Agency, Ski served in the U.S. Air Force in an assortment of military budget and finance positions at many different locations including Chantilly, Virginia; Hickam Air Force Base, Hawaii; Los Angeles Air Force Base, California; Seoul, South Korea; and Beale Air Force Base, California.

Ski is a native of northern California and holds an undergraduate degree in business from California State University, Sacramento and a graduate degree in business from California State University, Dominguez Hills.

Presented by:

California Center for International Trade Development

Entity of State Center Community College District

Website: www.fresnocitd.org • (559) 324-6401